Jaipur set to welcome global leaders for 3R Forum 2025.

India is set to host the 12th Regional 3R and Circular Economy Forum in Asia and the Pacific, which will take place in Jaipur from 3-5 March 2025.

The event will bring together policymakers, experts, and industry leaders to discuss strategies for transitioning towards a resource-efficient and sustainable circular economy. The Forum aims to promote waste reduction, recycling, and reusing strategies, aligning with global sustainability goals.

Union Minister Shri Manohar Lal, while addressing a curtain-raiser event in New Delhi, shared that over 500 participants from India and abroad are expected to attend.

The conference will feature plenary sessions, discussions, and networking opportunities. Delegates will also have the chance to visit solid and liquid waste management facilities in Jaipur and explore key heritage sites.

A special highlight of the Forum will be the 'India Pavilion,' which will showcase the country's initiatives and achievements in the circular economy sector. This Pavilion will feature exhibitions from key ministries and national missions, presenting a whole-of-government approach to sustainable development.

It will also serve as a hub for interactive knowledge-sharing through dialogues, policy discussions, and the signing of agreements under the CITIIS 2.0 programme.

Additionally, a compendium of over 100 best practices in circular economy and waste management, prepared by the National Institute of Urban Affairs (NIUA), will be launched.

Another key feature of the Forum is the international '3R trade and technology exhibition,' where over 40 businesses and start-ups from India and Japan will showcase innovative ideas and solutions for sustainability.

Waste-to-wealth initiatives by NGOs and self-help groups will also be presented, encouraging sustainability-driven entrepreneurship.

The Forum will conclude with the adoption of the 'Jaipur Declaration,' which will provide a policy framework to support the transition to a resourceefficient, circular economy across Asia-Pacific nations.

This Declaration, covering the period from 2025-2034, builds upon the Hanoi Declaration (2013-2023) and aims to guide participating countries in developing effective 3R and circular economy policies.

It will be a voluntary and legally non-binding agreement, setting the direction for future collaborations in the region.

Launched by the United Nations Centre for Regional Development (UNCRD) in 2009, the Regional 3R and Circular Economy Forum serves as a strategic platform to provide policy guidance to governments across Asia and the Pacific.

The Forum supports the mainstreaming of circular economy principles and facilitates knowledge-sharing on sustainable waste management practices. The last edition was hosted by Cambodia in 2023, while India previously hosted the Forum in Indore in 2018.

The 12th edition is being led by the Swachh Bharat Mission–Urban under the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs in collaboration with Japan's Ministry of the Environment, UN Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (UN ESCAP), UNCRD, and other United Nations agencies.

The event is also receiving support from the Government of Rajasthan.

With participation expected from 38 member countries, 15 Indian government ministries, representatives from all states and union territories, over 60 cities, and more than 40 businesses and start-ups, the Forum will be a platform for meaningful policy discussions.

Around 120 speakers will contribute insights on how to strengthen circular economy initiatives and accelerate progress towards achieving the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

He emphatibled merging modern technology with traditional practices to churite ecilylaste and environmental impacts coursed to instanti alization and consumerices.

India on Monday said there should be a new global platform that will accelerate the adoption of a circular economy by connecting cities, academia and tech innovators. Union Housing and Urban Affairs Minister Manohar Lal Khattar said the Cities Coalition for Circularity (C3) platform could be in line with the spirit of the Jalpur declaration, to be adopted on the closing day of the 12th Regional 3R and Circular Economy Forum in the Asia and the Pacific that began on Monday.

The event on the theme "Realising Circular Societies Towards Achieving SDGs and Carbon Neutrality in Asia-Pacific" was inaugurated by Khattar in the presence of Rajasthan Chief Minister Bhajan Lal Sharma.

"Today, from this platform, India proposes a global alliance that will speed up circular acceleration by connecting cities, academia and tech innovators. I invite everyone to discuss and collaborate on this initiative, which will strengthen partnerships and generate impactful solutions," Khattar said at the inaugural ceremony. "To take forward the prime minister's vision, I propose a new ... Cities Coalition for Circularity (C3) platform. We are working on 3R (Reduce, Reuse, Recylce). Now, we will work on C3, which is a multi-stakeholder, multi-national alliance for sharing knowledge, technical expertise and best practices," he said.

Khattar urged the participants to discuss how to improve the proposed platform to benefit cities and other stakeholders.

A circular economy or circularity is an economic model based on reusing and recycling products and materials to reduce waste and maximise resource efficiency. Khattar said, "India will present C3 as a major digital platform which will promote city to city collaboration, technical institutions, partnerships and such initiatives. It is proposed that a working group of interested voluntary member nations be formed which will finalise the architecture and working principles of the alliance."

With support from industry, academia and policymakers, the platform will emerge as a catalyst to promote resource efficiency and a low carbon economy in the Asia-Pacific region, he added.

Khattar also said the 3R circular economy had become a necessity not only for environmental responsibility but also for sustainable development.

He said industrialisation and consumerism had made mass production a necessity. "As a result, a disposable culture has emerged, promoting a 'use-and-throw' mentality. This culture has led to an overwhelming accumulation of waste," he said.

With the rapid evolution of technology, waste is increasing at an alarming rate, he added.

Now, it is time to bring innovation into traditional practices, Khattar said. "By merging modern technology with age-old customs, we can revitalise systems and promote efficient recycling as well as environmental responsibility. This will contribute to the improvement of our environment."

The Centre has identified 11 key sectors, including liquid waste management and lithium battery recycling, to maximise resource utilisation and reduce waste.

Chief Minister Sharma said industrialisation was having a significant impact on the environment, leading to shrinking forests, mountains and rivers.

"To protect these natural resources, we must continue working towards their conservation," he said.

A system needs to be established to effectively handle waste, he said.

"By finding solutions to waste disposal, we can ensure that the atmosphere remains clean. The Indian government has taken several steps to address this issue. The Swachh Bharat Abhiyan is one of the major initiatives and the Rajasthan government is playing a leading role in this mission," Sharma said.

More than 1,000 delegates, including policymakers, industry leaders and representatives from international organizations from Asia-Pacific countries, are participating in the threeday forum. The participants.

Launched by the United Nations Centre for Regional Development in 2009, the forum aims to provide strategic policy inputs to government authorities in the Asia-Pacific region for mainstreaming 3R and circularity.

He highlighted the importance of efficient resource utilisation and sustainable growth as the pressing needs of the current time. CM Sharma pointed out the alarming increase in the exploitation of natural resources over the past 50 years, stating that we have witnessed a 400 per cent rise in the exploitation of resources since 1970, which is now posing a major crisis.

He emphasised that the Asia-Pacific region, being the most populous, has been particularly affected by rapid economic growth, which has put forests and biodiversity at risk.

Discussing the need to address these challenges, Sharma remarked that the exploitation is primarily driven by our increasing need for industrialisation.

"In our culture, nature is considered divine, and its preservation is crucial, and we must be mindful of this and work towards its protection," he said.

The Chief Minister referred to ancient Indian texts, noting that our Vedas recognise nature as divine.

He said that forests provide us with fruits and health, and mountains, rivers, and rainfall offer us and added that we must create systems that safeguard our environment.

Rajasthan recently organised an investor summit, Rising Rajasthan Investors Summit, to attract investments and industries in the state. (ANI)

India bats for global platform to accelerate adoption of circular economy

Jaipur, Mar 3 (PTI) India on Monday said there should be a new global platform that will accelerate the adoption of a circular economy by connecting cities, academia and tech innovators.

Union Housing and Urban Affairs Minister Manohar Lal Khattar said the Cities Coalition for Circularity (C3) platform could be in line with the spirit of the Jaipur declaration, to be adopted on the closing day of the 12th Regional 3R and Circular Economy Forum in the Asia and the Pacific that began on Monday.

The event on the theme "Realising Circular Societies Towards Achieving SDGs and Carbon Neutrality in Asia-Pacific" was inaugurated by Khattar in the presence of Rajasthan Chief Minister Bhajan Lal Sharma. "Today, from this platform, India proposes a global alliance that will speed up circular acceleration by connecting cities, academia and tech innovators. I invite everyone to discuss and collaborate on this initiative, which will strengthen partnerships and generate impactful solutions," Khattar said at the inaugural ceremony.

"To take forward the prime minister's vision, 1 propose a new ... Cities Coalition for Circularity (C3) platform. We are working on 3R (Reduce, Reuse, Recylce). Now, we will work on C3, which is a multi-stakeholder, multi-national alliance for sharing knowledge, technical expertise and best practices," he said.

Khattar urged the participants to discuss how to improve the proposed platform to benefit cities and other stakeholders.

A circular economy or circularity is an economic model based on reusing and recycling products and materials to reduce waste and maximise resource efficiency. Khattar said, "India will present C3 as a major digital platform which will promote city to city collaboration, technical institutions, partnerships and such initiatives. It is proposed that a working group of interested voluntary member nations be formed which will finalise the architecture and working principles of the alliance."

With support from industry, academia and policymakers, the platform will emerge as a catalyst to promote resource efficiency and a low carbon economy in the Asia-Pacific region, he added.

Khattar also said the 3R circular economy had become a necessity not only for environmental responsibility but also for sustainable development.

He said industrialisation and consumerism had made mass production a necessity. "As a result, a disposable culture has emerged, promoting a 'use-and-throw' mentality. This culture has led to an overwhelming accumulation of waste," he said.

With the rapid evolution of technology, waste is increasing at an alarming rate, he added.

Now, it is time to bring innovation into traditional practices, Khattar said. "By merging modern technology with age-old customs, we can revitalise systems and promote efficient recycling as well as environmental responsibility. This will contribute to the improvement of our environment."

The Centre has identified 11 key sectors, including liquid waste management and lithium battery recycling, to maximise resource utilisation and reduce waste.

Chief Minister Sharma said industrialisation was having a significant impact on the environment, leading to shrinking forests, mountains and rivers. "To protect these natural resources, we must continue working towards their conservation," he said.

A system needs to be established to effectively handle waste, he said.

"By finding solutions to waste disposal, we can ensure that the atmosphere remains clean. The Indian government has taken several steps to address this issue. The Swachh Bharat Abhiyan is one of the major initiatives and the Rajasthan government is playing a leading role in this mission," Sharma said.

More than 1,000 delegates, including policymakers, industry leaders and representatives from international organizations from Asia-Pacific countries, are participating in the three-day forum. The participants.

Launched by the United Nations Centre for Regional Development in 2009, the forum aims to provide strategic policy inputs to government authorities in the Asia-Pacific region for mainstreaming 3R and circularity.

3R Circular Economy का कॉन्सेप्ट हमारे लिए नया विषय नहीं है। हमारी पारंपरिक जीवनशैली में हम 3R प्रिंसिपल को पूर्व में अपनाते रहे हैं जहां Minimal waste, resource efficiency और sustainable living को प्राथमिकता दी जाती है।

India Proposes Global Circular Economy Platform

By Rediff Money Desk, Jaipur Mar 03, 2025 Share on: 15:12

India advocates for a new global platform, the Cities Coalition for Circularity (C3), to accelerate circular economy adoption in the Asia-Pacific region. The platform aims to connect cities, academia, and tech innovators, promoting resource efficiency and a low-carbon economy.

Jaipur, Mar 3 (PTI) India on Monday said there should be a new global platform that will accelerate the adoption of a circular economy by connecting cities, academia and tech innovators.

Union Housing and Urban Affairs Minister Manohar Lal Khattar said the Cities Coalition for Circularity (C3) platform could be in line with the spirit of the Jaipur declaration, to be adopted on the closing day of the 12th Regional 3R and Circular Economy Forum in the Asia and the Pacific that began on Monday. The event on the theme "Realising Circular Societies Towards Achieving SDGs and Carbon Neutrality in Asia-Pacific" was inaugurated by Khattar in the presence of Rajasthan Chief Minister Bhajan Lal Sharma.

"Today, from this platform, India proposes a global alliance that will speed up circular acceleration by connecting cities, academia and tech innovators. I invite everyone to discuss and collaborate on this initiative, which will strengthen partnerships and generate impactful solutions," Khattar said at the inaugural ceremony.

"To take forward the prime minister's vision, I propose a new Cities Coalition for Circularity (C3) platform. We are working on 3R (Reduce, Reuse, Recylce). Now, we will work on C3, which is a multi-stakeholder, multi-national alliance for sharing knowledge, technical expertise and best practices," he said.

Khattar urged the participants to discuss how to improve the proposed platform to benefit cities and other stakeholders. A circular economy or circularity is an economic model based on reusing and recycling products and materials to reduce waste and maximise resource efficiency.

Khattar said, "India will present C3 as a major digital platform which will promote city to city collaboration, technical institutions, partnerships and such initiatives. It is proposed that a working group of interested voluntary member nations be formed which will finalise the architecture and working principles of the alliance."

With support from industry, academia and policymakers, the platform will emerge as a catalyst to promote resource efficiency and a low carbon economy in the Asia-Pacific region, he added.

Khattar also said the 3R circular economy had become a necessity not only for environmental responsibility but also for sustainable development. He said industrialisation and consumerism had made mass production a necessity.

"As a result, a disposable culture has emerged, promoting a 'use-and-throw' mentality. This culture has led to an overwhelming accumulation of waste," he said.

With the rapid evolution of technology, waste is increasing at an alarming rate, he added.

Now, it is time to bring innovation into traditional practices, Khattar said. "By merging modern technology with age-old customs, we can revitalise systems and promote efficient recycling as well as environmental responsibility. This will contribute to the improvement of our environment."

The Centre has identified 11 key sectors, including liquid waste management and lithium battery recycling, to maximise resource utilisation and reduce waste. Chief Minister Sharma said industrialisation was having a significant impact on the environment, leading to shrinking forests, mountains and rivers.

"To protect these natural resources, we must continue working towards their conservation," he said.

A system needs to be established to effectively handle waste, he said.

*By finding solutions to waste disposal, we can ensure that the atmosphere remains clean. The Indian government has taken several steps to address this issue. The Swachh Bharat Abhiyan is one of the major initiatives and the Rajasthan government is playing a leading role in this mission,* Sharma said.

More than 1,000 delegates, including policymakers, industry leaders and representatives from International organizations from Asia-Pacific countries, are participating in the three-day forum. The participants.

Launched by the United Nations Centre for Regional Development in 2009, the forum aims to provide strategic policy inputs to government authorities in the Asia-Pacific region for mainstreaming 3R and circularity.

India bats for global platform to accelerate adoption of circular economy

India on Monday said there should be a new global platform that will accelerate the adoption of a circular economy by connecting cities, academia and tech innovators. Union Housing and Urban Affairs Minister Manohar Lal Khattar said the Cities Coalition for Circularity (C3) platform could be in line with the spirit of the Jaipur declaration, to be adopted on the closing day of the 12th Regional 3R and Circular Economy Forum in the Asia and the Pacific that began on Monday. The event on the theme "Realising Circular Societies Towards Achieving SDGs and Carbon Neutrality in Asia-Pacific" was inaugurated by Khattar in the presence of Rajasthan Chief Minister Bhajan Lal Sharma.

"Today, from this platform, India proposes a global alliance that will speed up circular acceleration by connecting cities, academia and tech innovators. I invite everyone to discuss and collaborate on this initiative, which will strengthen partnerships and generate impactful solutions," Khattar said at the inaugural ceremony.

"To take forward the prime minister's vision, I propose a new ... Cities Coalition for Circularity (C3) platform. We are working on 3R (Reduce, Reuse, Recylce). Now, we will work on C3, which is a multi-stakeholder, multi-national alliance for sharing knowledge, technical expertise and best practices," he said.

Khattar urged the participants to discuss how to improve the proposed platform to benefit cities and other stakeholders.

A circular economy or circularity is an economic model based on reusing and recycling products and materials to reduce waste and maximise resource efficiency.

Khattar said, "India will present C3 as a major digital platform which will promote city to city collaboration, technical institutions, partnerships and such initiatives. It is proposed that a working group of interested voluntary member nations be formed which will finalise the architecture and working principles of the alliance."

With support from industry, academia and policymakers, the platform will emerge as a catalyst to promote resource efficiency and a low carbon economy in the Asia-Pacific region, he added.

Khattar also said the 3R circular economy had become a necessity not only for environmental responsibility but also for sustainable development.

He said industrialisation and consumerism had made mass production a necessity.

"As a result, a disposable culture has emerged, promoting a 'use-and-throw' mentality. This culture has led to an overwhelming accumulation of waste," he said.

With the rapid evolution of technology, waste is increasing at an alarming rate, he added.

Now, it is time to bring innovation into traditional practices. Khattar said. "By merging modern technology with age-old customs, we can revitalise systems and promote efficient recycling as well as environmental responsibility. This will contribute to the improvement of our environment."

The Centre has identified 11 key sectors, including liquid waste management and lithium battery recycling, to maximise resource utilisation and reduce waste.

Chief Minister Sharma said industrialisation was having a significant impact on the environment, leading to shrinking forests, mountains and rivers.

"To protect these natural resources, we must continue working towards their conservation," he said.

A system needs to be established to effectively handle waste, he said.

"By finding solutions to waste disposal, we can ensure that the atmosphere remains clean. The Indian government has taken several steps to address this issue. The Swachh Bharat Abhiyan is one of the major initiatives and the Rajasthan government is playing a leading role in this mission." Sharma said.

More than 1,000 delegates, including policymakers, industry leaders and representatives from international organizations from Asia-Pacific countries, are participating in the threeday forum. The participants.

Launched by the United Nations Centre for Regional Development in 2009, the forum aims to provide strategic policy inputs to government authorities in the Asia-Pacific region for mainstreaming 3R and circularity.

Regional 3 R & Circular Economy Forum starts today, CM Bhajanlal Sharma said - New policy is being made for use of treated water in Rajasthan

Jaipur: Regional 3R and Circular Economy Forum started today. It is being organized at Rajasthan International Centre. Meanwhile, Chief Minister Bhajan Lal Sharma said that Union Minister Manohar Lal Khattar has chosen Jaipur for this event. I thank him very much for this.

This kind of organization infuses new energy into the city. More than 90% of resources are wasted. Only 8.6% returns to the economy. This is a matter of concern. Circular economy is a good way to tackle various challenges.

We have to work for the protection of rivers and mountains. In our culture we worship rivers, mountains and trees. A new policy is being made for the use of treated water in the region. Garbage collection is targeted at 45 lakh metric tonnes.

After this Union Minister Manohar Lal Khattar said that India has got this opportunity. Why are we organizing the second edition? There could not be a better place than Jaipur. Because Rajasthan is known for its cultural heritage and sustainable development.

I thank Chief Minister of Rajasthan Bhajan Lal Sharma for organizing this event. Sharma's visionary leadership has taken Rajasthan on the path of development.

The Chief Minister referred to ancient Indian texts, noting that our Vedas recognise nature as divine.

He said that forests provide us with fruits and health, and mountains, rivers, and rainfall offer us and added that we must create systems that safeguard our environment.

Yadav said, "The circular economy is not just an alternative, rather it is essential. It marks a fundamental shift in how we produce, consume, and manage materials. Under Prime Minister Modi's leadership, India is moving ahead from waste management to harnessing the economic potential of recycling through this "Waste to Wealth initiative." He also underscored the economic opportunities of circularity, particularly for startups and innovators developing recycled products.

Circular Economy Action Plans For 10 Waste Categories Finalised: Union Min

Jaipur: India's circular economy could generate a market value of over $2 trillion and create close to 10 million jobs by 2050, said Bhupender Yaday, Union minister for environment, forest & climate change.

Addressing the delegates Tuesday at the 12th Regional 3R and Circular Economy Forum, Yadav said the 'circular economy' may be about to drive one of the biggest transformations in business since the Industrial Revolution 250 years ago. He said circular economy action plans for 10 weste categories were finalised, for which regulatory and implementation framework is under progress. India already notified various weste management and extended producer responsibility rules in certain sectors.

On the second day of the event, 'SBM Waste to Wealth PMS Portal,' developed under the Switchh Bharat Mission (SBM), was launched.

The portal is designed to enhance project monitoring, streamline data management, and facilitate resource sharing, thereby supporting the mission's broader objective of transforming waste intravaluable resources.

For fostering scientific collaboration in waste management, an MoU was signed between the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR) and the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs (MoHUA). This partnership will facilitate research-driven solutions and innovative technologies. The event also saw the release of 'India's Circular Sutra: A Compendium of Best Practices in 3R & Circular Economy'. This documents successful case studies and innovative approaches in the Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle (3R) framework.

India's Circular Economy Can Become $2 Trillion Creating 10 Million Jobs By 2050: Union Minister

Union Minister Bhupender Yadav said India is willing to host the 2026 edition of the World Circular Economy Forum.

New Delhi: India's circular economy can become worth more than $2 trillion and create close to 10 million jobs by 2050. Union Environment Minister Bhupender Yadav asserted on Tuesday. Speaking at the 12th Regional 3R and Circular Economy Forum in Asia and the Pacific held in Jaipur, Yadav pointed out that Mission Circular Economy has three cardinal principles: eradicating waste and pollution, circulating products and materials, and regenerating nature.

The minister underlined that India is working actively to shape policies to enable a circular economy through whole-of-government efforts. He emphasized the importance of production systems being coherent with circular economy thinking in order to minimize dependence on resources and grow competitiveness.

"The 'circular economy' could be on the verge of propelling one of the largest shifts in business since the Industrial Revolution 250 years ago," Yadav said, predicting that by 2030, it could add another $4.5 trillion to the world economy.

India Bids to Host World Circular Economy Forum 2026

Yaday further stated that India is ready to host the 2026 World Circular Economy Forum (WCEF), a world forum for the exchange of circular economy solutions. The 2025 edition will take place in São Paulo, Brazil. "Each year, the World Circular Economy Forum (WCEF) is hosted, and in this year 2025, it is being hosted in São Paulo, Brazil. India has shown interest to host the World Circular Economy Forum - 2026. Moving forward to 2030 and beyond, this forum must cause actual change," he added.

Emphasizing India's pioneering work in recycling, Yadav pointed out that India has more than 3,500 recycling facilities that process nearly 45 million metric tonnes of waste every year. He urged intensifying cooperation with Asia-Pacific nations to drive circular economy practices forward.

Circular Economy: Beyond Being a Business Model

Yadav warned against perceiving the circular economy as only a business model, pointing out that it needs to work smoothly at all levels, right from small enterprises to international industries.

"Circular economy acknowledges the significance of the economy to function efficiently at all levels, for large and small enterprises, for businesses and people, locally and globally," he said.

Since the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, India has made climate action a more inclusive process. Yadav attributed this vision to Mission LiFE (Lifestyle for Environment), saying that for India, circularity was not merely a business approach but a lifestyle.

Sikkim Secures ₹5 Crore for Climate Initiatives

Sikkim Urban Development Department (UDD) was an active participant in the forum and was awarded ₹5 crore under CITIIS 2.0 Challenge through a tripartite agreement. The funding, a part of Climate Change Adaptation and Mitigation, will go towards creating climate-smart urban infrastructure and green projects.

Sikkim's bid centered on reducing climate change while maintaining the state's environmental and cultural heritage. The UDD delegation, headed by Commissionercum-Secretary Jitendra Singh Raje, reiterated its pledge to sustainable urban development in accordance with national and international sustainability objectives.

Circular economy can create $2 tn market, 10 mn jobs by 2050: Yadav

He said the circular economy may be about to drive one of the biggest transformations in business since the industrial revolution 250 years ago.

NEW DELHI: Union minister Bhupender Yadav said on Tuesday that India's circular economy has the potential to create a market worth over $2 trillion and generate nearly 10 million jobs by 2050.

He said the circular economy may be about to drive one of the biggest transformations in business since the industrial revolution 250 years ago. "Through a radical departure from the traditional 'take, make, waste' production and consumption models, the circular economy could provide a potential $4.5 trillion in additional economic output by 2030 world over," the Union Minister for Environment, Forest and Climate Change said at the 12th Regional 3R and Circular Economy Forum in Asia and the Pacific in Jaipur.

He said India has expressed the willingness to host World Circular Economy Forum (WCEF) 2026. This year's annual Forum is organised in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

Emphasising on the steps taken, the minister further said that India remains committed to addressing plastic waste challenges and their associated ecological impacts.

Yadav further stated that a Circular Economy Action Plan has been finalised for 10 categories, with the regulatory and implementation frameworks currently being worked on. "Circular Economy Action Plans for 10 waste categories have been finalised, for which the regulatory and implementation framework is under progress. India has already notified various waste management and extended producer responsibility rules in certain sectors, such as the Plastic Waste Management Rules, e-Waste Management Rules, Construction and Demolition Waste Management Rules, and Metals Recycling Policy, among others," Yaday said.

On the occasion, a portal, Waste to Wealth, an innovative online platform developed under the Swachh Bharat Mission (SBM) was launched. The website is designed to enhance project monitoring, streamline data management, and facilitate resource sharing, thereby supporting the mission's broader objective of transforming waste into valuable resources. This initiative aligns with the government's commitment to sustainable urban development and effective solid waste management.

The minister said that through the Plastic Waste Management Rules of 2016, significant steps have been taken targeting municipal, industrial, residential and commercial sectors. He said that in 2022, a ban on certain categories of single-use plastics was imposed.

On the second day of the forum, the CSIR and Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs signed an MoU to promote scientific collaboration in waste management.

Union Minister Bhupender Yadav on Tuesday said that India's circular economy could generate a market value of over USD 2 million and create close to ID million jobs by 2050

Expressing this view, while speaking at the 12th Regional 3R and Circular Economy Forum in Asia and the Pacific, Bhupender Yadav said, the 'circular economy' may be about to drive one of the biggest transformations in business since the Industrial Revolution 250 years ago.

"Through a radical departure from the traditional 'take, make, waste' production and consumption models, the circular economy could provide a potential USD 4.5 trillion in additional economic output by 2030 world over," he said.

Vadav also informed the forum about India's candidacy for organising the World Circular Economy Forum in the year 2026. Every year, World Circular Economy Forum is organised and in this year, 2025 it is being organized in Sao Paulo, Brazil. India has expressed the willingness to host World Circular Economy Forum 2026. Emphasising on the steps taken, the Minister said, India remains committed to addressing plastic waste challenges and their associated ecological impacts.

"The Plastic Waste Management Rules (2016) have led to significant measures targeting municipal, industrial, residential, and commercial sectors. India banned certain categories of single-use plastics through notification in 2022. In alignment with the Mission 'LiFE' initiative, MoEFCC has notified the Eco-Mark Rules to encourage demand for environmentally friendly products while promoting energy efficiency and circular economy principles," he added.

He further said, Circular Economy Action Plans for 10 waste categories have been finalized, for which regulatory and implementation framework is under progress. India has already notified various waste management and extended producer responsibility rules in certain sectors, such as the Plastic Waste Management Rules, e-Waste Management Rules, Construction and Demolition Waste Management Rules, and Metals Recycling Policy, among others.

Secretary, Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs, Srinivas Kathikala, and Chief Secretary, Government of Rajasthan, Sudhansh Pant jointly chaired a significant session today, focusing on advancing waste management and circular economy initiatives. The session saw the launch of several key reports, best practices and the signing of important agreements aimed at strengthening India's waste management ecosystem.

A major highlight of the session was the launch of the SBM Waste to Wealth PMS Portal, an innovative online platform developed under the Swachh Bharat Mission (SBM). The portal is designed to enhance project monitoring, streamline data management, and facilitate resource sharing, thereby supporting the mission's broader objective of transforming waste into valuable resources. This initiative aligns with the government's commitment to sustainable urban development and effective solid waste management.

The session also marked the release of the IFC Document Reference Guide: Business Models and Economic Assistance for Municipal Solid Waste (MSW) Projects. This guide provides comprehensive insights into various business models for MSW processing, including waste-to-electricity, biomethanation, and bioremediation. The document serves as a crucial resource for municipalities and private players looking to implement effective and economically viable waste management projects.

In a significant step toward fostering scientific collaboration in waste management, a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed between the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR) and the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs (MoHUA). This partnership will facilitate research-driven solutions and innovative technologies to enhance urban waste management practices across India.

The event also saw the release of 'India's Circular Sutra: A Compendium of Best Practices in 3R & Circular Economy'. This compendium documents successful case studies and innovative approaches in the Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle (3R) framework, providing valuable insights for urban local bodies and stakeholders looking to implement circular economy solutions.

The Council on Energy, Environment, and Water (CEEW) presented its latest study, which offers a detailed outlook on solid waste management (SWM) practices in cities with populations exceeding one million. The report highlights sustainable waste management strategies, circular economy principles, and decentralized solutions that can be tailored to meet the unique challenges of India's rapidly urbanizing regions. India is willing to host the 2026 edition of the World Circular Economy Forum and is seeking stronger collaboration with Asia-Pacific countries on the circular economy, Union Environment Minister Bhupender Yadav said on Tuesday.

Addressing the 12th Regional 3R and Circular Economy Forum in Asia and the Pacific in Jaipur, he also said the circular economy could drive one of the biggest business transformations since the Industrial Revolution 250 years ago.

*Every year, the World Circular Economy Forum (WCEF) is organised and, in this year, 2025, it is being organised in Sao Paulo, Brazil. India has expressed a willingness to host the World Circular Economy Forum - 2026. Looking ahead to 2030 and beyond, this forum should drive real change," the minister said.

Held since 2017, the WCEF is a global initiative by Finland and Sitra, the Finnish Innovation Fund. The forum brings together business leaders, policymakers and experts from around the world to discuss key circular economy solutions.

Yadav said India, with its strong recycling industry, was ready to collaborate with Asia-Pacific countries on the circular economy.

India currently has more than 3,500 recycling units capable of processing around 45 million metric tonnes of waste per year, he said. The minister also said circular economies were crucial for achieving the Sustainable Development Goals and climate neutrality, balancing low-carbon growth with equitable development.

"The 'circular economy' may be about to drive one of the biggest transformations in business since the Industrial Revolution 250 years ago. Through a radical departure from the traditional 'take, make, waste' production and consumption models, the circular economy could provide a potential USD 4.5 trillion in additional economic output by 2030 world over," he said.

Yadav added that by 2050, India's circular economy could be worth more than USD 2 trillion and create nearly 10 million jobs.

However, he cautioned against viewing the circular economy only as a business model, particularly for the manufacturing sector.

"Circular economy recognises the importance of the economy to work effectively at all scales – for big and small businesses, for organisations and individuals, globally and locally. We in India, under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, have emphasised the need to make climate action a participative process," he said.

Circularity, for India, is thus not just a business model. It is a life model. Prime Minister Modi's clarion call for Environmentally Sustainable Lifestyles, or Mission LiFE, drives from this thought, the minister said.

नयी दिल्ली, चार मार्च (भाषा) केंद्रीय पर्यावरण मंत्री भूपेंद्र यादव ने मंगलवार को कहा कि भारत 'विश्व चक्रीय अर्थव्यवस्था मंच' के 2026 संस्करण की मेजबानी का इच्छुक है।

इसके साथ ही उन्होंने कहा कि भारत चक्रीय अर्थव्यवस्था पर एशिया-प्रशांत देशों के साथ मजबूत सहयोग का समर्थक है।

'चक्रीय अर्थव्यवस्था' उत्पादन और उपभोग का ऐसा मॉडल है, जिसमें यथासंभव विद्यमान सामग्रियों एवं उत्पादों को साझा करना, पट्टे पर देना, दोबारा इस्तेमाल, मरम्मत, नवीनीकरण और पुनर्चक्रण शामिल है।

यादव ने जयपुर में आयोजित एक कार्यक्रम में कहा कि चक्रीय अर्थव्यवस्था 250 साल पहले आई औद्योगिक क्रांति के बाद से सबसे बड़े व्यावसायिक बदलावों में से एक को संचालित कर सकती है।

उन्होंने कहा, ''हर साल आयोजित होने वाला 'विश्व चक्रीय अर्थव्यवस्था मंच' (डब्ल्यूसीईएफ) इस साल ब्राजील के साओ पाउलो में हो रहा है। भारत ने वर्ष 2026 के सम्मेलन की मेजबानी की इच्छा जताई है। वर्ष 2030 और उसके बाद के भविष्य को देखते हुए इस मंच को वास्तविक बदलाव लाना चाहिए।'' डब्ल्यूसीईएफ का आयोजन फिनलैंड और उसके नवाचारी कोष सिट्रा की वैश्विक पहल है। यह फोरम चक्रीय अर्थव्यवस्था से जुड़े बिंदुओं पर चर्चा के लिए दुनिया भर के कारोबारी प्रमुखों, नीति-निर्माताओं और विशेषज्ञों को एक साथ लाता है।

यादव ने कहा कि भारत अपने मजबूत पुनर्चक्रण उद्योग के साथ चक्रीय अर्थव्यवस्था पर एशिया-प्रशांत देशों के साथ सहयोग करने के लिए तैयार है।

उन्होंने कहा कि भारत में फिलहाल 3,500 से अधिक पुनर्चक्रण इकाइयां हैं जो प्रति वर्ष लगभग 4.5 करोड़ टन कचरे को संसाधित करने में सक्षम हैं।

उन्होंने कहा कि टिकाऊ विकास लक्ष्यों और जलवायु निरपेक्षता को प्राप्त करने के लिए चक्रीय अर्थव्यवस्थाएं महत्वपूर्ण थीं, जो समान विकास के साथ कम कार्बन उत्सर्जन को भी संतुलित करती हैं।

हालांकि, उन्होंने खासकर विनिर्माण क्षेत्र के लिए चक्रीय अर्थव्यवस्था को केवल एक व्यवसाय मॉडल के रूप में देखने के खिलाफ चेतावनी दी। उन्होंने कहा कि भारत के लिए चक्रण केवल एक कारोबारी मॉडल न होकर एक जीवन मॉडल है।

भारत की 'सर्कुलर' अर्थव्यवस्था बड़े पैमाने पर नौकरियां पैदा कर सकती है : भूपेंद्र यादव

जयपुर, चार मार्च (भाषा) केंद्रीय वन, पर्यावरण और जलवायु परिवर्तन मंत्री भूपेंद्र यादव ने मंगलवार को कहा कि भारत की संसाधनों के अनुकूलतम उपयोग वाली (सर्कुलर) अर्थव्यवस्था में 2050 तक 2,000 अरब अमेरिकी डॉलर से अधिक का बाजार बनाने और लगभग एक करोड़ नौकरियां पैदा करने की क्षमता है।

यादव यहां भारत और प्रशांत क्षेत्र के 12वें क्षेत्रीय 3आर और सर्कुलर इकोनॉमी फोरम को संबोधित कर रहे थे।

उन्होंने कहा, "वर्ष 2050 तक भारत की सर्कुलर अर्थव्यवस्था 2,000 अरब अमेरिकी डॉलर से अधिक का बाजार और लगभग एक करोड़ नौकरियां पैदा कर सकती है। वहीं. वैश्विक स्तर की बात करें तो यह सर्कुलर अर्थव्यवस्था वर्ष 2030 तक 4,500 अरब अमेरिकी डॉलर का अतिरिक्त आर्थिक उत्पादन कर सकती है।" यादव ने कहा कि सर्कुलर अर्थव्यवस्था 250 साल पहले हुई औद्योगिक क्रांति के बाद व्यापार में सबसे बड़े परिवर्तनों को सामने लाएगी और उत्पादन तथा उपभोग के अब तक चले आ रहे पार्रपरिक मॉडल 'टेक, मेक, वेस्ट' में क्रांतिकारी परिवर्तन करेगी।

केंद्रीय मंत्री ने कहा कि भारत प्लास्टिक अपशिष्ट चुनौतियों और उनके संबंधित पारिस्थितिक प्रभावों को कम करने के लिए प्रतिबद्ध है।

उन्होंने कहा. "प्लास्टिक अपशिष्ट प्रबंधन नियम (2010) के जरिये नगर पालिका. औद्योगिक, आवासीय और वाणिज्यिक क्षेत्रों को लक्षित करते हुए महत्वपूर्ण उपाय किए गए हैं। भारत ने 2022 में अधिसूचना के माध्यम से एकल-उपयोग वाले प्लास्टिक की कुछ श्रेणियों पर प्रतिबंध लगा दिया है। इसके साथ ही मिशन 'लाइफ' पहल के साथ जुड़ते हुए मंत्रालय ने ऊर्जा दक्षता और सर्कुलर अर्थव्यवस्था के सिद्धांतों को बढ़ावा देते हुए पर्यावरण के अनुकूल उत्पादों की मांग बढ़ाने के लिए इको-मार्क नियम लागू किए हैं।"

यादव ने बताया कि 10 अपशिष्ट श्रेणियों के लिए सर्कुलर अर्थव्यवस्था कार्य योजना को अंतिम रूप दिया गया है, जिसके लिए विनियामक और कार्यान्वयन रूपरेखा पर काम चल रहा है।

इस कार्यक्रम के दूसरे दिन कचरा प्रबंधन में वैज्ञानिक सहयोग को बढ़ावा देने की दिशा में एक महत्वपूर्ण कदम उठाते हुए वैज्ञानिक एवं औद्योगिक अनुसंधान परिषद (सीएसआईआर) और आवासन एवं शहरी कार्य मंत्रालय के बीच एक समझौता ज्ञापन (एमओयू) पर हस्ताक्षर किए गए।

Jaipur Declaration Unanimously Adopted At 12th Regional 3R And Circular Economy Forum

The 12th Regional 3R and Circular Economy Forum in Asia and the Pacific concluded with the unanimous adoption of the 'Jaipur Declaration' by participating member countries. The declaration outlines key strategies to enhance resource efficiency, promote sustainable material consumption, and strengthen waste management systems across the region.

A major highlight of the forum was India's proposal to establish the 'Cities Coalition for Circularity' (C-3), a multi-stakeholder global alliance aimed at facilitating knowledge sharing and city-to-city collaboration in circular economy practices. Union Minister Manohar Lal emphasized that the Jaipur Declaration is a testament to collective commitment towards sustainability, adding that while the declaration is non-binding, it will serve as a guiding framework for member nations in their transition towards a circular economy.

Minister of State for Housing and Urban Affairs, Tokhan Sahu, called the forum a historic moment, underscoring the necessity of adopting the 3R principles—Reduce, Reuse, Recycle—as a fundamental approach to resource conservation. The event featured discussions on waste management, environmental sustainability, gender inclusivity, and laborrelated issues in the informal sector.

During the forum, key announcements aligned with India's sustainability vision were made. The Prime Minister's message, presented at the inaugural session, reinforced the country's 'Pro Planet People' (P-3) approach. India also formally announced its candidacy to host the World Circular Economy Forum (WCEF) 2026.

A major milestone was the rollout of CITIIS 2.0, an initiative under which agreements worth ₹1,800 crore were signed for integrated waste management and climate action projects across 18 cities in 14 states. The forum also saw the launch of the SBM Waste to Wealth PMS Portal, IFC Document Reference Guide, and India's 'Circular Sutra,' a compilation of 126 best practices compiled by the National Institute of Urban Affairs (NIUA).

International and Domestic Participation

The forum witnessed high-level participation, with 24 Asia-Pacific member countries and nearly 200 international delegates attending the event. Union Minister Manohar Lal inaugurated the event alongside ministers from Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, Uttarakhand, and Haryana. International representation included ministers from Japan, Solomon Islands, Tuvalu, and Maldives. Over 800 delegates from India, representing 33 states and union territories, 15 line ministries, and private sector stakeholders, participated in discussions on sustainability and circular economy.

The forum also hosted engaging sessions such as the 'Mayors' Dialogue' and 'Case Clinic,' fostering collaboration among urban leaders and stakeholders.

Prof. Amit Kapoor from the Institute for Competitiveness at Stanford University delivered a special address on implementing circularity at the Maha Kumbh in Prayagraj, sharing insights from a study on sustainable waste management for large congregations.

The forum concluded with technical field visits, allowing delegates to witness sustainable urban practices firsthand at waste management facilities and key heritage sites in Jaipur.
