

Dhangadhi Sub-Metropolitan City

Dhangadhi, Kailali, Sudurpashchim Province, Nepal

A Brief Introduction

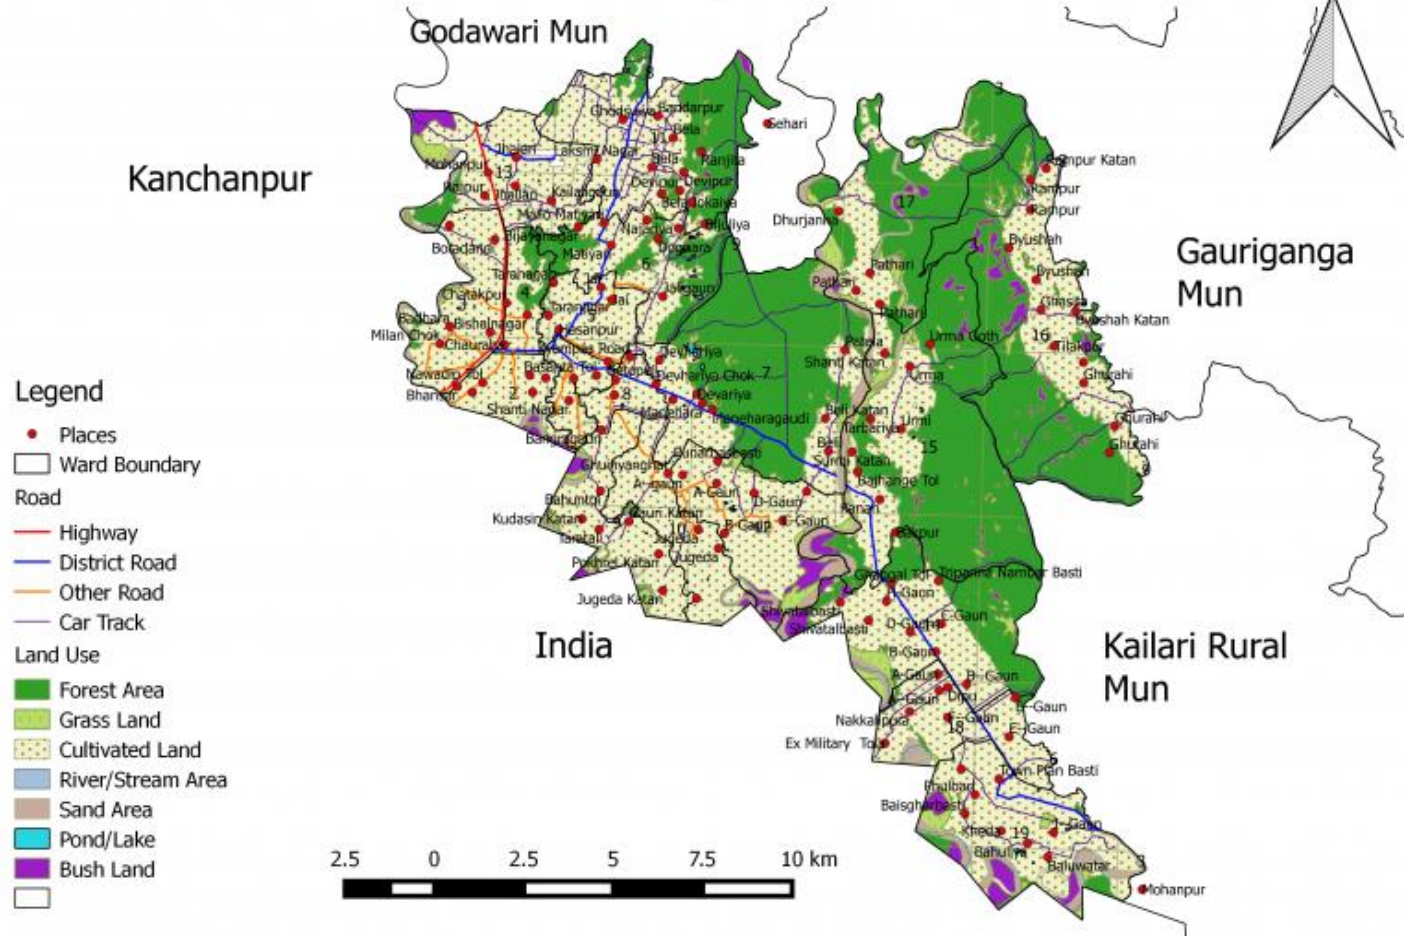

- Established in 1976 AD as a Municipality
- Promoted as Sudurpashchim Province's one and only Sub-Metropolitan City on 18th September 2015 AD
- Area: 261.75 sq. km. (Terai Region)
- Population: 1,98,792 (2021 Census)
- Climate: Hot and Humid

Dhangadhi Sub-Metropolitan City Map

धनगढी उप-महानगरपालिका

Free Health Specialist Ward Health Clinic Program

• More than 45,700 people have benefitted from this, which has been operating since 17th July 2022.

• Services provided by Specialist Ward Health Clinic:

- General Physician
- Gynecology and Obstetrics Service
- Eye Checkup
- Dental Service
- Orthopedic services
- VIA Service
- Lab Test and Results
- Video X-ray Service
- ECG Service
- Free Medication Service

Greenery Promotion Program

- In the first phase, Fiscal Year 2079/2080 3,505 saplings were planted.
- In the second phase, Fiscal Year 2080/2081, 2,000 saplings were planted with the participation of 300 citizens.
- Increased citizen participation, more than NRs. 3.8 million funds collected in Greenery Promotion Fund.
- A sense of belonging to the plant has increased due to direct involvement.

Some glimpse of the Greenery Promotion in the Dhangadhi Sub-Metropolitan area

Plastic Free Dhangadhi Campaign Programme

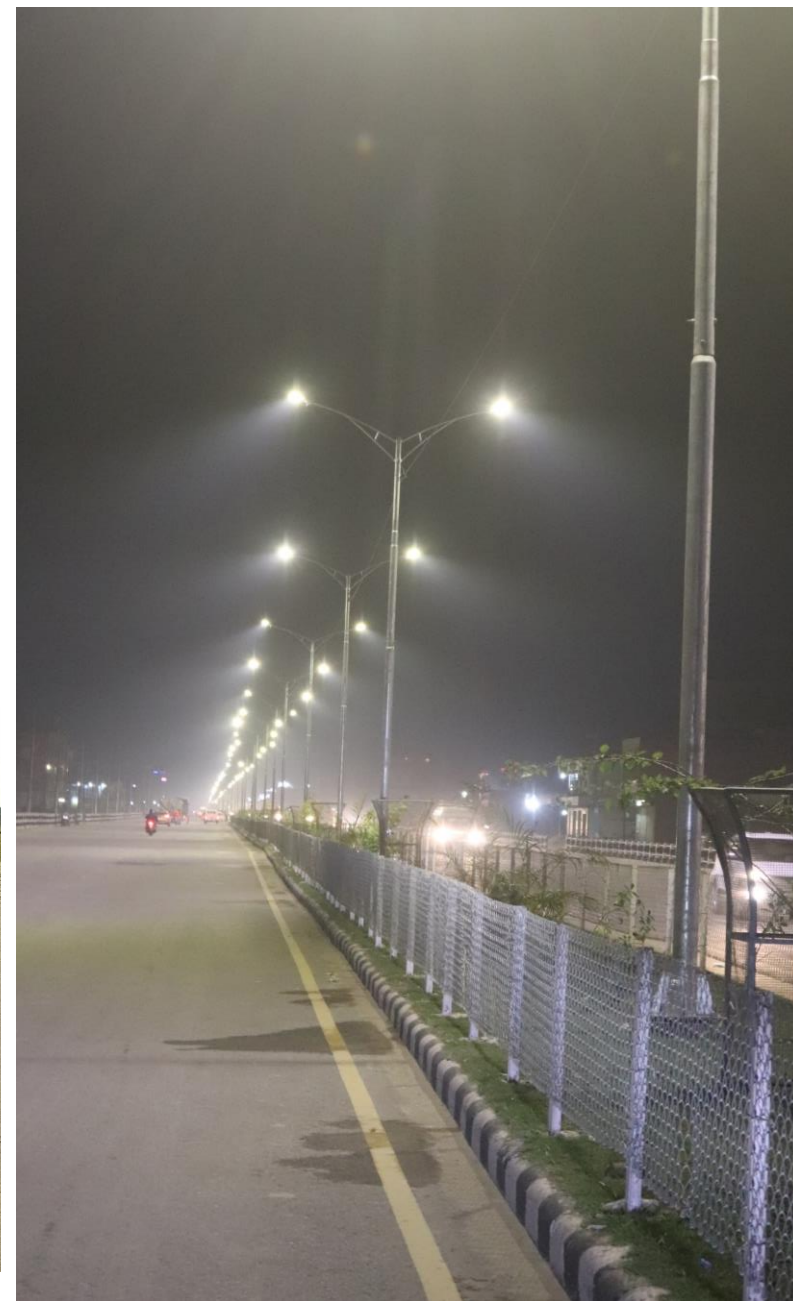

- The Municipal Assembly enacted the Plastic Goods Prohibition Act, 2079
- More than 2,700+ kg of single-use plastic was seized and a fine of more than NRs. 371000 was collected
- So far more than 1,000+ students from 20 schools have been oriented in Plastic Free Dhangadhi Campaign.
- To make the Plastic Free Campaign Effective, Tik-Tok competition was conducted under which the winner is awarded NRs. 15,000 every month.
- Training was provided to make fiber bags and Duna Tapari.

A glimpse of the city's effort toward the plastic ban and using organic and natural products.

Security and Beautification of the City

- In the first phase, 15 high-mast and 590 street- lights were installed in coordination with Nepal Electricity Authority
- In the second phase, NRs. 40 million worth of smart street-lights will be added
- According to the district traffic office 46% decrease in road accidents was seen after the installation of streetlights
- 35 CCTV cameras monitored by the District Police Office within the city area have been repaired
- City cleaning is being done in coordination with various community clubs and youth clubs

A glimpse of the city's effort toward smart lighting to make a community safe and secure.

Smart City Police Mobilization

- Management and Rescue
 - Market Monitoring
 - Revenue Collection
 - Ambulance Operation
 - Fire Brigade Operation
 - Snake Rescue
 - Hearse
 - And many more sectors
- A barrack has been set up inside the office to provide 24-hour city police service with a toll-free number (18105000090).
 - Trained by specialists to work in Disaster Rescue and Snake Rescue
 - More than 157 Snake Rescue has been performed till now
 - City Police are equipped with portable cameras to record any incidents and GPS Tracking Walkie-Talkie

A glimpse of the city police working to make a city and community safe and managed.

Smart Sanitation and Waste Management Program

- More than 7,381 people have oriented on waste segregation at source at the community level.
- Various cleaning programs and awareness programs are being carried out at the community level by mobilizing community and social mobilizers.
- 30 tons of biodegradable and non-biodegradable waste segregated at source are collected daily within the city area.
- Fertilizer and Bio-Gas are made from biodegradable waste and the non-biodegradable waste is further classified as recyclable and non-recyclable resources.

A glimpse of the city's effort toward waste management.

Ground Water Recharge Program

- The jurisdiction of the 3km of encroached rivers has been separated and the natural flow has been opened up.
- The jurisdiction of encroached lakes (Gadaiya Lake 1 and 2, Saduwa Lake) has been identified and emptied.
- A policy has been adopted that, while passing the house map, there should be a provision for underground water recharge and tree plantation.
- One Community Forest One Pond Program has been introduced in a total of 65 community forests to extinguish forest fires, create a tourist destination, recharge groundwater, provide a source of drinking water for wild animals, reduce the impact of global warming and protect the environment.

Social Responsibilities of the Sub-Metropolis

- 131 senior citizens of all 19 wards who reached the latter half of their lives were sent on a religious pilgrimage.
- A Grievance Management Unit has been established by operating the Namaste Mayor app and WhatsApp number to address public complaints.
- 24-hour ambulance, fire brigade, and city police services are operated.
- Aid materials worth 3.8 lakhs have been distributed to 248 persons with disabilities and if the materials are damaged, new ones will be provided immediately.

A glimpse of the city's effort toward social responsibilities

We Invite You All To Our Beautiful City Of Dhangadhi

धन्यवाद
Thank You